

Information Sheet: Event Organiser Insurance

“INSURANCE COVERAGE” for events in Schönbrunn Palace

Based on legal regulations, as event organiser you bear full responsibility for harm or damage to persons or material damage that ensue from the organised event (A). Moreover, you are to pay according to the settled (rental) agreement for all material damage to or within the used facilities caused by you, your employees, any ancillary persons, or your guests, respectively visitors (B).

In order to ensure insurance coverage of this obligation, you have participated in an insurance contract which we have specially drawn up for this purpose by payment of a corresponding premium and therefore are covered with insurance protection to the following amount:

ad A) Organiser liability insurance for harm or damage by third-party persons and third-party material damage ensuing from or during the organised event and for which you can be made liable based on legal regulations, up to an all-in insured sum of EUR 10,000,000.-.

Igniting fireworks is prohibited and is therefore not covered by the insurance.

ad B) Coverage for material damage to the facilities that are rented or placed at the event’s disposal (incl. their adaptation, moveables and furnishings), also open-air areas, presuming this material damage surpasses the customary measure of wear and tear through normal use, and for which the organiser can be made responsible.

Objects owned by the organiser or objects rented from outside firms are not covered by the insurance.

This insurance coverage applies as well to damage caused by participants (visitors). However, this does not exclude the right of recourse against such persons.

Damage caused by the personnel of supplier companies is not included in the insurance coverage.
