

Information Sheet on Organiser Insurance

“INSURANCE COVER” of events in Schönbrunn Palace

In accordance with legal provisions, organisers shall bear full responsibility for damage to persons and property that arise from the event taking place (A). In addition to this and in accordance with the consensual (hire) agreement, you have to pay for all damage to property to, or in, the facilities being used that is caused by you, your employees or any persons assisting in fulfilling the task at hand, or by your guests, respectively visitors (B).

To cover this obligation with adequate insurance, you have partaken in an insurance contract drawn up by us especially for this purpose by paying a corresponding premium, and therefore benefit from insurance cover, which includes the following:

- A) Organiser liability insurance covering damage to persons and property by a third party, arising because of or during the event taking place and for which you, according to legal provisions, can be made liable up to a comprehensive insurance amount of EUR 10,000,000.-

Letting off fireworks is not permitted and therefore not covered by the insurance.

- B) Cover for property damage to the hired buildings or those facilities placed at disposal for use (incl. their adaptation and movables), also open spaces, in so far as this damage goes beyond the usual amount of wear and tear during normal usage, and in so far as the organiser can be made responsible for this.

Personal property of the organiser or hired property from outside firms are not covered by the insurance.

This insurance also covers damage by participants (visitors). However, this does not exclude the right of recourse against such persons.

Damage caused by the staff of supplier firms is not covered by the insurance.
